HIST 213-H01 meets Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00pm to 5:25pm in CKB room #206

Course Description:

In this course we shall use case studies to provide an inter-disciplinary view of the 20th century world. Selected cultural, literary, philosophical, and artistic movements are discussed in the context of major historical developments of the century. This course satisfies three credits of the GUR in Cultural History. Prerequisite to this class is HUM 102.

General Education Goals:

Hist 213 is affirmed in the following General Education Foundation Category: Historical Perspective. The corresponding General Goal is as follows: Students will understand historical events and movements in the world, both Western and non-Western, and assess their subsequent significance.
Course Objectives:

Knowledge of history is of the greatest importance due to the fact that the world we live in today is the direct result of various historical developments. The students of the course will analyze historical events and movements of the 20\(^{th}\) century and assess their subsequent significance. Students will use critical thinking and problem solving skills to analyze information and develop their writing skills by producing a historically themed research paper. Additionally students will learn how to synthesize historical and geographical information acquired through the understanding of Maps and Primary Source information.

Course Goals:

Upon completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of some of the fundamental concepts and theories of historical events and ideas related to the 20\(^{th}\) Century World.

2. Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions.

3. Read, analyze, organize and synthesize, evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of the 20\(^{th}\) Century World.

Measurable Course Performance Objectives (MPOs):

Upon successful completion of this course, students should specifically be able to do the following:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of some of the fundamental concepts and theories of historical events and ideas related to human societies, including but not limited to Africa, India, China, Latin America, Europe, and the United States.

   1.1 Identify and describe key terms, names and places of major events of the 20\(^{th}\) Century World.

   1.2 Evaluate the validity of various interpretations of historical events and institutions.

   1.3 Clarify and summarize information pertaining to historical events and ideas in a Research Paper.

2. Evaluate global exchanges and perspectives in context of social, political, religious, and intellectual traditions.

   2.1 Identify places and nation states on historical maps.

   2.2 Discuss social structures, religious ideas and institutions, and intellectual traditions.
3. Read, analyze, organize, and synthesize evidence, historical problems, and interpretations connected to the history of the 20th Century World

3.1 Use primary and secondary sources to show how historical problems are confronted.

3.2 Conduct research and explore reliable resources on the history of the 20th Century World

Methods of Instruction:

Instruction will consist of lectures, visual aids, class discussion, and the viewing of films and documentaries.

Required Textbooks:

Suggested Reading:

Grading:

A- 90-100% Superior Work: demonstrates excellent writing, analytical, and interpretive skills.

B- 80-84% Above Average Work: demonstrates good writing, analytical, and interpretive skills

B+ (same as above but with a score of 85-89%)

C- 70-74% Average Work: demonstrates writing, analytical, and interpretive skills that are at a college entry level.

C+ (same as above but with a score of 75-79%)

D- 60-69% Below Average Work: demonstrates writing, analytical, and interpretive skills that are below a college entry level.

F- Below 60% Failure: work that shows little effort or that is incomplete.

Attendance:

Attendance is required and attendance will be taken at the start of every class. Each student is permitted three absences during the semester. Additional absences will affect the student’s grade. Unexcused lateness counts as ½ of an absence. Leaving class early also counts as ½ of an absence. The Attendance Policy will be explained in detail on the first two days of class. Any student with more than five (5) absences will have their grade lowered by a full letter grade which could result in an “F” for this course.

Cell Phone Usage:

Cell phone usage will not be tolerated. Phones must be turned off or placed on vibrate before the beginning of class. Texting during class is also strictly prohibited.

Class Room Decorum:

There shall be no food or eating in the class room. Rude or obnoxious behavior will not be tolerated; the student will simply be asked to leave the class.
Laptop Usage:

Laptops are NOT to be used during class, unless they are used for taking class notes. If this is the case please sit in the front two rows of the class room and see me for permission prior to using your laptop.

Academic Integrity:

Plagiarism is passing off someone else’s work as your own and will not be tolerated. Students are expected to write their own original work and to give credit in the form of footnotes (i.e. citations) for any material that is not their own. Plagiarized papers will be given an automatic “F” with no possibility of a rewrite. This may result in a failing grade for the entire course. Violations will be brought to the immediate attention of the Dean of Students and adjudicated in accordance with the NJIT Honor Code. A copy of the Honor Code is available at www.njit.edu/academics/honorcode.php.
