Course Description

This is a second course in Corporate Finance. It aims to develop an understanding of how and why financial decisions are made in a modern corporation. These decisions include what assets to invest in and how to finance those investments. The course extends the material covered in the introductory course and covers additional topics that were not included there. We will study methods for calculating the values involved in financial decisions and some of the theories behind them. The goal is to provide students with the conceptual tools necessary for valuation.

Topics Covered:

- Efficient capital markets and behavioral finance
- Capital structure and MM Theorem
- Issuing securities
- Valuation of derivatives
- Short-term finance and planning

- Mergers and acquisitions

Throughout the course, our primary viewpoint is that of a corporate financial manager; however, since corporations get funds from investors, we will often look at issues from an investor's point of view and then examine the implications for managers.

This course is essential for anyone planning a career in finance, whether at a corporation or a financial institution, and it is recommended for all business students. This course is demanding. You need passion and time to excel.

Textbook and Materials

Required:

- Ross, S., Westerfield, R., and Jaffe, J. Corporate Finance. McGraw-Hill, 10th edition, 2012, ISBN 978-0078034770 (11th Edition is also available).
- You are also strongly encouraged to read other economic and financial publications such as Financial Times, Business Week, or the Economist.

Financial Calculator:

A financial calculator is STRONGLY RECOMMENDED! I recommend the Texas Instrument BAII Plus financial calculator. If you have another financial calculator that you are comfortable with, you may use it. TI - BA II Plus and HP 12C are the only two calculators permitted on the CFA Exams. It is your own responsibility to learn how to use your calculator.

Grading Categories

Categories	Percentage
Group Presentation	10%
Weekly WSJ Article Discussion	5%
Quizzes	25%
Midterm Exam #1	30% *
Midterm Exam #2	30% *
Final Exam (Cumulative)	30% *

 Your grade will be determined by the best 2 of the 3 exams (i.e. if you do really well in Midterm 1 & 2, you don't need to take Final. If you take all 3 exams, I will use the best 2 exam scores to calculate your final grade.)*

Weekly WSJ Article Discussion (5%):

You are required to read and discuss the selected weekly WSJ article news.

You have to post at least one response to each question, and respond to at least one of your classmates.

Group Minicase Presentation and Discussion (10%):

I will assign the class into 4 teams. Each team will discuss a mini-case. The team should also lead the discussion.

The video presentation should last between 3-5 minutes and have no more than 12 slides. I have uploaded a file describing how to make videos through PowerPoint. The video can be uploaded to YouTube. Alternatively, it can be uploaded directly to the Canvas site.

Quizzes (25%)

There will be weekly online quizzes for each module. There will be no make-up quizzes, no exceptions. Please check the due dates for quizzes and make sure you do NOT miss any quiz.

Exams (60%)

There will be three exams. Your grade is calculated on a best 2-out-of-3 basis. If an exam is missed – whether due to an emergency, tragedy, or simply because you are unprepared – then the remaining two test scores will be used to compute your class grade. There are no exceptions to this policy.

Time Commitment

This course requires not only much reading, but also requires students to stay on top of current events in reference to the content. Students will be responsible for working with their designated groups at a time and in a manner that works for all team members. Students are also responsible for addressing all deliverables of the course. Review the Course Schedule to see what will be due in the upcoming modules.

Late Work and Make-Up Exams

Late work will not be accepted. If you have issues completing the work in the allotted time, speak to your professor at the start of the course.

Sharing Information

With respect to your answers on the problem sets, midterm exam, and final exam, no common or group answers will be accepted to any question. Further, any material from the text should not be quoted but must be paraphrased in your own words.

Student Conduct

The NJIT University code on academic integrity, found at <http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf>, will be followed in all courses.

Student with Disabilities Codes

NJIT adheres to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act (ADA) of 1990. Appropriate accommodations are provided at no cost to the student. If you have any questions or would like
