Course Modality

This is an online course, which will be conducted fully online, asynchronously via Canvas. For more information on using Canvas and other supported learning tools, visit the IST Service Desk Knowledgebase.

Since this is an online course, you will have to take responsibility for spending the appropriate amount of time to learn the material. You should expect to spend at least 6-9 hours on each module on the course.

Instructor Information

Instructor	Email	Office Hours
Professor Michelle Berliner		Office Hours can be scheduled by appointment via email.

I will respond to all emails/Inbox messages within 12 hours. If you do not receive a response within 12 hours, please resend to be sure I received it. Assignments will be graded weekly.

General Information

Course Description

The Real Estate Principles course provides an overview of fundamental real estate concepts, terminology, and real estate practices. Specifically, the course will be surveying real estate law, appraisal, marketing, brokerage, management, finance, and investment analysis. As an introductory course, it will provide you with the foundation needed for the other real estate courses that are required for the real estate specialization in the B.S. program.

Prerequisites/Co-requisites

While there are no prerequisites/co-requisites for this course, it will help if you are familiar with basic Excel functions.

Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- 1. Identify the foundational concepts of real estate, including its nature, markets, value, and the legal framework governing ownership.
- 2. Describe the process of real estate purchasing, including the role of brokers and key considerations in transactions.
- 3. Discuss the fundamental principles of real estate financing, mortgage regulation, and the foreclosure process.
- 4. Compare and contrast mortgage markets, alternative mortgage types, and factors including borrowing choices.
- 5. Apply the concept of time value of money and risk analysis to real estate valuation.
- 6. Perform mortgage calculations for both fixed- and adjustable-rate mortgages.
- 7. Examine commercial mortgage types and the decision-making process for borrowers and lenders.
- 8. Assess the opportunity cost and value considerations involved in real estate decision-making.
- 9. Analyze recent events and trends in real estate markets, financing, regulation, development, and their implications for the industry.

Grading Policy

NJIT Grading Legend

Final Grade Calculation

Final grades for all assignments will be based on the following percentages:

Reflective Essays (3)	20% of your final grade
Week Review (13)	20% of your final grade
Quizzes (13)	20% of your final grade
Exams (2)	25% of your final grade
Participation on Discussion Boards (13)	15% of your final grade
SmartBook Reading Assignments (13)	Complete/Incomplete (Completed Reading Assignments will be used as bonus points to increase your final grade if you are close to the next higher grade)

Course Work

Quizzes: (20% of grade) There will be weekly multiple-choice quizzes throughout the course. They are meant to help you practice course concepts.

Discussion Forums: (15% of grade) You are expected to participate in weekly discussion forums in Canvas. When all students participate in a discussion, it creates an active learning environment that will help you better understand the material and be more successful in the class. You will post your initial response to the prompt by Fridays at 11:59pm and respond to two classmates by Mondays at 11:59pm of the week they are listed.

Week Review Assignments: (20% of grade) Assignments will be given each module to give you an opportunity to apply course concepts for that week. Similar to quizzes, these activities are designed to help you practice and reinforce the material learned.

Reflective Essays: (20% of grade) There will be three (3) Reflective Essays during the semester. Reflective Essays are to provide you an opportunity to reflect on what you have learned and find meaning on how you can use the information learned in your own life and career. Reflective Essays are not a summary of what you learned, rather it is an opportunity to share your insights and thoughts on how the material relates to you.

Exams: (25% of grade) There will be two Exams: Midterm Exam (Exam #1) and Final Exam (Exam #2). The project will allow you to demonstrate your knowledge of the material learned throughout the semester by applying it in one final project. You will have guidance and feedback during the semester by submitting work upon achieving milestones at certain points during the semester. Both Exam #1, which will cover all material learned to that point, and Exam #2, which will cover all material learned after Exam #1, together, will be a culmination of what you have learned in the class and successful completion will exhibit your mastery of the class material.

SmartBook Reading Assignments: (Complete/Incomplete) You are expected to read the chapter assigned for each week and complete the SmartBook Reading Assignment (you will need to have rented/purchased the Textbook through McGraw-Hill Connect in order to complete the SmartBook Assignments).

Feedback

There will be feedback on each assignment using the comments feature in Canvas for each written assignment. In cases where there is an identified need to correct or add additional information on an assignment, you will be offered the opportunity to complete the additional work to improve your grade.

Letter to Number Grade Conversions

Α	B+	В	C+	С	D	F
90%	87%	80%	77%	70%	60%	<60%

Policy for Late Work

As responsible adults/students, it is your responsibility to meet all assignment due dates. When life gets in the way resulting in a need for additional time, it is your responsibility to communicate with the instructor at least 24 hours prior to the due date. Communication should be through the Canvas Inbox or direct email. Together, you can work out a solution to help you complete the assignments. If you miss a deadline under exceptional circumstances without reaching out to your instructor, you will need to contact the Dean of Students and Campus Life with official and verifiable documentation to be considered for extended deadlines.

Academic Integrity

Learning is both an individual and cooperative experience. Asking for and giving help freely in appropriate settings helps you learn. You should, however, present only your work as your own. University rules and standards define and prohibit "academic misconduct" by all members of the academic community, including students. You are asked and expected to be familiar with and abide by the standards below: "Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the NJIT academic code of integrity policy.

Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at <a href="mailto:documents-docum

Netiquette

Throughout this course, you are expected to be courteous and respectful to classmates by being polite, active participants. You should respond to discussion forum assignments in a timely manner so that your classmates have adequate time to respond to your posts. Please respect opinions, even those that differ from your own, and avoid using profanity or offensive language.

Weekly Expectations

This course is organized by weekly modules. Each week, students must watch a lecture video or other video, when provided, complete a reading assignment, and participate in a class discussion forum by Friday at 11:59pm. Additionally, each student must complete the Quiz and Week Review Assignment, and when assigned, the Reflective Essays and Exams.
