New Jersey Institute of Technology Digital Commons @ NJIT

Humanities Syllabi NJIT Syllabi

Fall 2019

THTR 212-001: From Page to Stage

Lillian Ribeiro

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.njit.edu/hum-syllabi

Recommended Citation

Ribeiro, Lillian, "THTR 212-001: From Page to Stage" (2019). Humanities Syllabi. 177. https://digitalcommons.njit.edu/hum-syllabi/177

This Syllabus is brought to you for free and open access by the NJIT Syllabi at Digital Commons @ NJIT. It has been accepted for inclusion in Humanities Syllabi by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ NJIT. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@njit.edu.

COURSE THTR 212 SYLLABUS: FROM PAGE TO STAGE

Fall 2019 Instructor: Lillian Ribeiro Mondays and Wensdays 10:00 AM – 11:20 AM Email: LRibeiro@njit.edu Kupfrian Hall, room 110

Office Phone: (973) 596-3455

Office Hours: Kupfrian Hall, room 113

Mondays 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM (by appointment)

This schedule is subject to change at the discretion of the professor, in consultation with the class. This syllabus is intended as a guide for the student to plan wor

Description		ange at the discretion of the professor, in consultation with the class. This syllabus is intended as a guide for the student to plan workload.
Course Requirements  O Completion of in-class quizzes, pre- and inter-class readings, play texts, films, submission of written assignments, presentations, visual and performance projects. Full commitment towards class discussions, practical activities, planning individual and group projects, including off campus community engagement project. Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production. There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community. Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Course Outcomes  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is you responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.	Course	The course is an introduction to understanding the relationship between the literary nature of plays and
Course Requirements  O Completion of in-class quizzes, pre- and inter-class readings, play texts, films, submission of written assignments, presentations, visual and performance projects.  Full commitment towards class discussions, practical activities, planning individual and group projects, including off campus community engagement project.  Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theater models and techniques used by professional theater companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NIIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the cademic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu	Description	how they are produced for the stage. Attendance to professional productions off and on campus
submission of written assignments, presentations, visual and performance projects.  Full commitment towards class discussions, practical activities, planning individual and group projects, including off campus community engagement project.  Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obli	-	productions will be used as a launching point for class papers, discussions, and exercises.
submission of written assignments, presentations, visual and performance projects.  Full commitment towards class discussions, practical activities, planning individual and group projects, including off campus community engagement project.  Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obli	Course	Completion of in-class quizzes are- and inter-class readings play texts films
o Full commitment towards class discussions, practical activities, planning individual and group projects, including off campus community engagement project.  Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office projects, including off campus community engagement project.  Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using	Requirements
O Attendance in class and at two on-campus productions and one-off campus professional production.  O There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Methods  Course  Methods  Course  Methods  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@niit.edu  Students are expe production.  There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at:  http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from o There will be no final exam; instead students will present their community-engagement interviews as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  O Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If as a performance piece for their final project. The performance will be presented to community.  Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester.  Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Methods  Course  Methods  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www.5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Course Outcomes Students must visit the writing center at least once this semester. Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course Methods Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean
Students will demonstrate knowledge of analyzing, and interpreting scripts. Students will articulate theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 le theatre models and techniques used by professional theatre companies for working in community-based contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and contexts. Practical application of listening and documenting skills by conducting interviews off campus at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	_
at Rutgers Express Newark. Students will develop practical skills to design theatre event flyers, develop and produce a script inspired by oral histories.  Course Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Outcomes Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Course Methods  Lectures and class discussions. Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.  Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and
Scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.    Policies		and produce a script inspired by oral histories.
Scripts. Analyze plays. Design theatre flyers. Write papers. Engage in theatre exercises. Individual and group work. Student presentations. Quizzes and final presentation.    Policies	Course	Lectures and class discussions, Community engagement off campus. Watch theatre productions. Read
Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and
Policies  No cell phone use, including texting, during class. Participation grade will be marked accordingly. Late assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.  Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Wicthous
Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Honor Code  Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Policies and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at:  http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and		assignments will not be accepted unless you have an excused absence.
and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at:  http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Honor Code	Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course
As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf .  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Honor Code by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at:  http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.  Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and		nttp://wwwb.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.
plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and <ul> <li>may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu</li> <li>Attendance</li> <li>Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and</li> </ul> any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu  Attendance  Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Attendance Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and Attendance Students are expected to attend all classes. You are allowed 1 unexcused absence. After that any absence will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and will lower your grade by 1/2 letter grade. Your absences will only be excused with a doctor's note and	Attondonos
	Attenuance
email from Dean of Students. More than 6 unexcused absences will result in failure of the course. Students who arrive more than 10 minutes "late" or need to "leave early" will be marked accordingly.
Three or more "lates" or "leaving early" will lower class grade by 1/2 grade. Failure to attend classes in which assignments are presented will lower your grade by one letter grade and student will receive
zero for assignment.	ም
	Texts
Scripts avail on Canvas. The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams; Plumas Negras by Juliette Alexandra
Carrillo; Beyond Sacred: Voices of Muslim Identity by Ping Chong and Sara Zatz with Ryan Conarro; Johanna:
Facing Forward by Tlaloc Rivas, Articles, readings, and suggested plays and films uploaded throughout
semester.	*0.00
*Off-Campus Index Art Center, 237 Washington St Newark, NJ 07102 (ring bell)	_
	Location	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Grading Class participation (in-class and Canvas) & discussions (10%); Quizzes (10%);	Grading
Written assignments and papers (25%); Visual Projects and Presentations (25%); Final Project (30%)		I Written assignments and papers (25%): Visual Projects and Presentations (25%): Final Project (30%)
	Extra Credit	Design Playbill for final project
o Grade % is equivalent to doing a paper or design project.	Extra Credit	<ul> <li>Design Playbill for final project</li> <li>Write Press Release for final project</li> </ul>

Revised 9/3/19 1

COURSE THTR 212 SYLLABUS: FROM PAGE TO STAGE

Week 1   9/4	Syllabus.
·	Homework: Read The Glass Menagerie by Williams & Intro to Play Analysis, pg. 1-64. Create Canvas acct.
Week 2   9/9	Getting to Know You Theatre Games and Exercises wear something comfortable. Assign Groups.
9/11	Quiz #1 on The Glass Menagerie. Analysis of TGM (bring script & text to class). Meet @ Theatre Homework: Read Intro to Play Analysis. Pg.65 - 132.
Week 3   9/16	Quiz #2 on book Ch. 1-8, Intro to Play Analysis. Discuss text. Work Chapter Outlines. Homework: Read Ping Chong & Co. Methods and script Beyond Sacred.
9/18	Quiz #3 on Ping Chong & Co. Methodology. Interview-based script exercises.  Homework: Watch, The Laramie Project   Tetonic Theatre Company on YouTube.
Week 4   9/23	Quiz #4 on Beyond Sacred by Ping Chong & Co. Analysis of BS (bring script).
9/25*	Class @ Index Art Center. Meet & Greet with Newark Artists. (FYI Open Doors at Index 9/28) DUE *Reflection Paper #1 The Laramie Project via email and hardcopy
Week 5   9/30	DUE *Oral & Visual Presentation #1 Share Your Story 5 - 10 min. Power Point & Narrative.
10/2	Share Your Story 5 - 10 min.
10/2 Week 6   10/7	Community Engagement and Advocacy Plays.
•	Homework: Read Cornerstone and Junebug articles for this week on Canvas and Plumas Negras by Juliette Alexandra Carrillo.
10/9*	Interview Newark Artists @ Index Art Center. (FYI Newark Arts Festival this weekend)
Week 7   10/14	Quiz #5 on Cornerstone, June bug and Free Southern Theatre Methods. Analysis of PN (bring script).
·
10/16	Quiz #6 on Plumas Negras by Carrillo. Analysis of PN script. Meet @ Theatre.  DUE *Review Paper #2 Off Campus Performance via email and hardcopy.
Week 8   10/21	DUE *Oral & Visual Presentation #2 on Chapter Outlines. Power Point Presentation & handout.
Week 0   10/21	Del of the exposure of the contraction of the contr
10/23	Continue Oral & Visual Presentation on Chapter Outlines.
Week 9   10/28	DUE *Perform First Draft of Newark Artist Narrative in class.  Homework: Read Johanna: Facing Forward by Tlaloc Rivas
10/30	Perform First Draft of Artist Narrative in class.
Week 10   11/4	DUE *Oral & Visual Presentation #3 Design for Newark Artists Final Project – Vote on design
11/6	In class peer review of papers #1 & #2.
Week 11   11/11 *last day to withdraw	Quiz #7 on Johanna: Facing Forward by Rivas script. Analysis of JFF script. Meet @ Theatre.
11/13	Group Work. Analysis on play of choice.
	DUE *Final Draft of Artist Narrative hardcopy via email. Once approved by artist, start memorizing.
Week 12   11/18	Group Work. Analysis on play of choice.
11/20	Anne Deavere Smith on Interviews, Characters and Performing. DUE *Paper #3 Review On-Campus production, via email and hard copy.
Week 13   11/25	In class peer review of papers #3 & #4. DUE *Paper #4 Analysis on Play of Choice via email and hard copy.
11/27	No class. Friday classes meet.
Week 14   12/2	Rehearse Final Project Newark Artist Interviews
	*Final Narrative must be approved & send via Canvas)
12/4	Rehearse Final Project.
Week 15   12/9	Rehearse Final Project. @ Bradley Hall Theatre
12/11 * Last Day of Class	Final Project Presentation @ Bradley Hall Theatre Paper #5 Reflection on Final Project via Canvas
	HEATRE PRODUCTION (Sign-in for credit Save playbill)

ON CAMPUS THEATRE PRODUCTION (Sign-in for credit. Save playbill.)

Macbeth by William Shakespeare Directed by Louis Wells Wednesday, November 13-16 at 7pm & Sunday November 17 at 2:30pm | Jim Wise Theatre, Kupfrian Hall NJIT Campus Tickets $15

Off Campus Theatre Production (Save Playbill for Credit) Pipeline by Dominque Morriseau, September 11 to October 6 at Mile Square Theatre, Hoboken, N.J.

2

Revised 9/3/19