"Writing, Speaking & Thinking II" will focus on improving our writing, research and citation skills in preparation upper class and post-collegiate standards. We will be using “Introduction to Academic Research 2019-2020” and “The Best of The Best Science Writing” [ECCO, an imprint of Harper Collins, Jesse Cohen, Ed., 2010] as our texts. The Scott Foresman Handbook for Writers. Seventh Edition. Upper Saddle River, NJ: Pearson, Prentice Hall, 2004 is not required, but noted as a good reference. I will from time to time require some outside writings and handouts to flesh out topics we will be discussing and texts we will be examining.

The first of these will be a selection from an old CBS radio dramatization called YOU ARE THERE, (which can be found at <http://www.archive.org> Go to “Audio”, type in “You Are There” and scroll down to “500514_ep88_William_Penn_Trial.mp3”). Before our second class you are to have listened to this program, done some “light research” on the event dramatized and be prepared to discuss what CBS got right and wrong in class. TAKE NOTES on your research (WHERE you went, how you got there and SPECIFICALLY what you found) to share in class! You will be writing a brief paper on the broadcast and citing your historical research following the class discussion.

Since part of the focus of this class will be on how the modern academic world is built on all that has gone before and how interrelated the developments in our culture are and have been, each class will begin with a brief recap of the previous class's issues and a discussion of any items appearing in the CURRENT news relating to the texts and historical developments we are looking at and researching. There will be a STANDING ASSIGNMENT due the FIRST CLASS of each week of a citation from a GENERAL CIRCULATION NEWSPAPER or magazine (NOT a website - for reasons to be explained in class) with a typed paragraph from you explaining how the clipping illuminates or relates to an issue or text we are examining in class. Original thought is looked for.

Please note that the above schedule is approximate and subject to change. We may move at a faster or slower pace depending on a number of factors, but you are responsible for the readings on the schedule indicated (which will be fleshed out later - a week or two in advance). I would recommend having prepared the readings at least one class in advance. EACH of the topics we will be covering bear on the others, and should be brought to bear as we progress through the semester. DON’T FALL BEHIND!

HOMEWORK, SCHEDULED QUIZZES & EXAMS
During each week, there will be a homework assignment or paper for independent research and/or viewing. These homework assignments, group projects, class participation and up to four scheduled quizzes during the semester will be allotted the points as noted above. Class attendance will be important and a student risks losing points in this portion of his grade if he or she misses classes without leave or is tardy too often. See the NJIT attendance policy: http://www.njit.edu/registrar/policies/attendancepolicy.php. Students who expect to miss classes or exams because of religious observance must submit to their instructors a written list of dates that will be missed by the end of the second week of classes. Students are expected to make up missed work. ALL Quizzes and Exams are cumulative through the material assigned for that day - just like life. The anticipated progress of the classes and the general topics and deadlines currently anticipated are indicated above.

Please Note: All assignments, readings, etc., must have been prepared prior to class meetings on due dates. Revisions of work must be accompanied, when submitted for evaluation, by all prior drafts. Late Penalty: All assignments are to be submitted on or before the specified deadline. The standard late policy is 5 per cent per calendar day. I reserve the right to refuse any assignment submitted more than one week late.

PAPERS & E-Mails
All papers (unless otherwise specified, ANYTHING prepared outside of class) are to be college-level research papers: type written, numbered by page, with citations to the research used in MLA format (parenthetical citations within the text linked to a final alphabetical reference page at the end - not included in the page count). Just as the proper presentation of your work and ideas is essential in the work world to ensure that they are received and evaluated properly, so it is in this class. Contractions, spelling errors, grammatical, punctuation errors and ESPECIALLY missing deadlines will hurt your grade. Clearly identify all abbreviations and acronyms and keep them consistent. A standard 12 point font, double spaced to facilitate corrections and comments, will be expected. YOUR NAME AND FULL CLASS NUMBER MUST BE IN THE UPPER CORNER OF THE FIRST PAGE of EVERYTHING handed in.

If you fear you may miss a deadline for work related or emergency reasons beyond your control, explain the reason to me as soon as possible, and I may be able to work with you. If you MISS a deadline, do NOT wait until the next class to get me an assignment, but get it immediately to the Secretary (Winfred) in the Humanities Office marked for my mailbox. Unless specifically prearranged, NO work may be submitted via e-mail, although questions or communications are welcome.

Be sure your FULL Class Number is the FIRST thing in the SUBJECT LINE on any e-mail so I will see it in my inbox. While questions are welcome, please do your best to ask them IN CLASS where all can benefit from the answer. If your question is merely something you missed in your notes, check with your class contacts FIRST. It's a major reason you have them - keep in touch with them. ALWAYS e-mail me within 24 hours of ANY absence (see below).

QUIZZES
ONE of the functions of the pop quizzes is to encourage you to be ON TIME for classes so you will not be permitted to make up missed quizzes unless you have a valid excuse and notify me within 24 hours of the absence. Do your best to notify me IN ADVANCE of absences and I will try not to schedule them when you cannot attend. Please note: Americans in recent years have been notoriously weak in their knowledge of geography and this can harm them in the business world - ALL my quizzes WILL have map questions! If a place is referred to in the text or in class discussion, FIND it on a map. You may be held responsible for locating it.

PORTFOLIOS
Every student will be required to maintain a both an “e-portfolio” (for your reference and later use) and a HARD COPY Portfolio of their class work and Quizzes which they will bring with them to each class and turn in AT the Final class. This hard copy portfolio will contain your class notes, clean and corrected copies of all papers, and any quizzes or exams. You should also maintain a record of your attendance in this portfolio. The student MUST MAINTAIN and TURN IN this Hard Copy portfolio to get a final letter grade. Failure to turn in a Portfolio (and a working link to your e-portfolio) will result in the filing of a grade of “F.” For the final Portfolio submission, three ring binders are not acceptable. Neither are loose papers sloppily shoved in an envelope or worse. I recommend the fold-over NJIT Folders with pockets in the front and back. A well organized folder which lies flat should represent your best work.

GRADE POINTS
93 - 100+ = A 89 - 92 = B+ 83 - 88 = B 79 - 82 = C+ 70 - 78 = C 60 - 69 = D 59 & below = DON'T GO THERE!

FURTHER IMPORTANT POINTS TO KEEP IN MIND:

Access and proper use of these electronic resources is your responsibility. Their availability is constant, 24/7. If you discover any technical problems with the software or have any interface difficulties during the course, it is up to you to contact your professor or one of the IT/Help resources associated with the website as quickly as possible. I will be on hand for advice and guidance via either email or office hours every day.

At the end of the fall and spring semester, the Humanities Department may schedule an additional review of a selected sample of students’ portfolios. The teachers will be told in advance which portfolios will be included in the review. The portfolios will be read by two instructors and given a holistic score based on a six-point scale. The assessment is based on three criteria:

- evidence of analytical and critical thinking
- drafting and successful revision of papers
- Demonstrated skill in citing and documenting sources using MLA style.

The Departmental portfolio review will be used to monitor the writing program. The group reading session is intended to develop a communal sense of the program's goals and to track writing achievements. This additional review will NOT directly affect your grade, but it is essential that you co-operate with it in order to keep NJIT’s writing program as good as you deserve – it cannot function if YOU don’t keep up your Portfolios as described above!

Academic Integrity
Any evidence of cheating in any form, including plagiarism and cutting & pasting from the Internet, will be dealt with according to the Academic Integrity Code of NJIT (course failure and suspension or expulsion). Please note that to detect plagiarism, submissions may be reviewed using www.turnitin.com. The full text of the NJIT’s Academic Integrity Code is available for your review at http://www.njit.edu/academics/integrity.php

The Writing Center at NJIT
The Writing Center is available for one-hour individual and group appointments with professional writing tutors both onsite and online. This resource is intended to help you to improve your communication and writing skills and has proven extremely helpful to many of your peers in the past. Tutors can help with planning assignments, improving your writing, refining an essay or multimedia project, or other communication-based needs. Students will most likely need to schedule one week in advance for appointments. For more information, please visit https://www.njit.edu/writingcenter/
Because (when I teach more than one section of a course – I am not this Semester) you have a standing invitation to sit in on other class sections if you have a work or other conflict or if you MISS your earlier section for any reason and are encouraged to study with members of other sections and share research with them to the extent practical, I am posting the roster of any other sections here for your reference. PLEASE note however, that you should never “blow off” another class to make one of these sections – work due for another class is never a sufficient excuse for missing ANYONE’S class or deadline! BUDGET your time – especially in the last weeks of any semester!! Please note that I have made it a practice in recent Semesters to record my class sessions and posting them on a Google Drive file you will be invited to. Feel free to browse the file for supporting documents and recordings.

Because you have a standing invitation to sit in on any OTHER Sections of this class (I have none this Semester), and you may have friends registered there, I am including the Class Rosters for Sections I am teaching (as of 3 Sept 2019) to aid you in finding study partners:
