Home works are due the Monday following the week it was assigned. I reserve the right to reduce a grade if the assignment is late.

Important Notes:

1. The NJIT Honor Code will be upheld in this course. Any violations will be brought to the immediate attention of the Dean of Students.

2. Any modifications or deviations to the syllabus throughout the semester will be made through consultation and agreement with the class.

   “Academic Integrity is the cornerstone of higher education and is central to the ideals of this course and the university. Cheating is strictly prohibited and devalues the degree that you are working on. As a member of the NJIT community, it is your responsibility to protect your educational investment by knowing and following the academic code of integrity policy that is found at: http://www5.njit.edu/policies/sites/policies/files/academic-integrity-code.pdf.

Please note that it is my professional obligation and responsibility to report any academic misconduct to the Dean of Students Office. Any student found in violation of the code by cheating, plagiarizing or using any online software inappropriately will result in disciplinary action. This may include a failing grade of F, and/or suspension or dismissal from the university. If you have any questions about the code of Academic Integrity, please contact the Dean of Students Office at dos@njit.edu”
