Textbook: Necessary readings will be posted.

Course Goals: Skill in presentations, using the workplace as a basis for lessons. Students will improve oral abilities, including grammar, pronunciation, and presentation skills, using digital technology.

Specific Goals: On the completion of the course student will be able to do the following:

Content:

1. To develop skills in developing, shaping, and organizing content specifically, for oral presentations;
2. To plan and prepare speeches that inform, persuade, by analyzing the purpose of the speech;
3. To use presentation aids to enhance speeches;
4. To conduct meaningful research;
5. To analyze the audience and design speeches to reflect analysis;
6. To understand the communication process.
7. To create a professional online presence:
8. Communicate in small and large online groups

Non-Verbal:

1. To strengthen awareness of and use of Non-verbal elements in oral presentations.
2. To improve posture; stance, gestures, movements, facial expression

Academic Integrity

Any plagiarism (presenting another's writing as your own) will be referred to the Dean for further action. Be very careful to do all your own work. The university has a clear policy on plagiarism: "A student who fails a course due to academic integrity violations will be assigned a grade of "XF" in that course and placed on probation for a period to be determined by the sanctioning authority."

Self-assessment:

To strengthen skills in self-assessment and assessment of others' oral presentations by watching self, watching others, critiquing in writing, critiquing in private, re-presenting, memorization.

Evaluation:	Major Oral Presentations:	50%
	Mini presentations	25%
	Quizzes, Classwork,	15%
	Class Participation	10%

The following will be taken into consideration as class work and class participation: 1. Number of absences. 2. Number of assignments posted late. 3. Completion of 3 impromptu presentations. 4. Prompt completion of 2 peer reviews. 5. Finally whether or not I detected that just your name was there, but you were not in class during any zoom meetings.

Tips for Speaking in Public

- 1. Project your voice. Hold your chin parallel to the floor, and speak to the people in the back of the room as well as in the front. Do not shout.
- 2. Maintain eye contact. Look at the eyes of everyone in the room, just as though you were speaking to that one person. Do not turn your back to the audience. Do not speak to the blackboard or the projector screen. Do not read from notes.
- 3. Speak slowly. If your accent interferes with intelligibility, slowing your rate will improve comprehension.

Tips for Using PowerPoint

The purpose of the slides is to help your audience understand your presentation by giving key words or diagrams. Slides need to be interesting, clear, and easy to read.

1. Write no more than 6 lines of text, and no more than 6 words per line, per slide.
2. Use a font of 24-point as the smallest.
3. Use the full screen. Do not crowd the text at the top of the slide.
4. Plan no more than 3 slides per minute.
5. Do not read the slides aloud, but rather talk about each item.
6. Do not look turn your back to the audience. Refer instead to your computer screen in front of you.

The following is information pertaining to possible, occasional zoom meetings in case of a snow day or other reasons for an inability to meet face to face.
